(C) In any correctional facility.

(B) In any public place.

(4) Operating, navigating or being in actual physical control of any motor vehicle, aircraft or motorboat while under the influence of cannabis, except that a registered qualifying patient or visiting qualifying patient may not be considered to be under the influence of cannabis solely because of the presence of metabolites or components of cannabis that appear in insufficient concentration to cause impairment.

(5) Using cannabis, if that person does not have a serious or debilitating medical condition.

(b) Nothing in this article requires:

A registered qualifying patient is not under the influence of cannabis solely because of the presence of metabolites or components of cannabis that appear in insufficient concentration to cause impairment.

(c) A school or landlord may not refuse to enroll or lease to, or otherwise penalize, a person solely for his or her status as a registered qualifying patient or a registered designated caregiver, unless failing to do so would violate federal law or regulations or cause the school or landlord to lose a monetary or licensing-related benefit under federal law or regulations.

(d) For the purposes of medical care, including organ transplants, a registered qualifying patient's authorized use of cannabis in accordance with this article is the equivalent of the authorized use of any other medication used at the direction of a physician, and does not constitute the use of an illicit substance or otherwise disqualify a qualifying patient from needed medical care.

(e) A person otherwise entitled to custody of or visitation or parenting time with a minor may not be denied such a right and there is no presumption of neglect or child endangerment for conduct allowed under this article unless the person’s actions in relation to cannabis were such that they created an unreasonable danger to the safety of the minor as established by clear and convincing evidence.

(4) When a registered qualifying patient changes his or her preference as to who may cultivate cannabis for the qualifying patient, the qualifying patient shall notify the department.

(5) If a cardholder loses his or her registry identification card, he or she shall notify the department within ten days of becoming aware the card has been lost.

(b) When a cardholder notifies the department of items listed in subsection (a), but remains eligible under this article, the department shall issue the cardholder a new registry identification card with a new random ten-digit alphanumeric identification number within ten days of receiving the updated information and a $20 fee. If the person notifying the department is a registered qualifying patient, the department shall also issue his or her registered designated caregiver, if any, a new registry identification card within ten days of receiving the updated information.

(c) If a registered qualifying patient ceases to be a registered qualifying patient or changes his or her registered designated caregiver, the department shall promptly notify the designated caregiver. The registered designated caregiver’s protections under this article as to that qualifying patient expire fifteen days after notification by the department.

(e) A registered qualifying patient shall notify the department before changing his or her designated registered cannabis distribution center and pay a $20 fee. The department shall, within five business days of receiving the notification, update the registered qualifying patient’s entry in the identification registry system to reflect the change in designation and notify the patient that the change has been processed.

(f) If the registered qualifying patient's certifying practitioner notifies the department in writing that either the registered qualifying patient has ceased to suffer from a debilitating medical condition or that the practitioner no longer believes the patient would receive therapeutic or palliative benefit from the medical use of cannabis, the card becomes null and void. However, the registered qualifying patient has fifteen days to dispose of or give away his or her cannabis.

(a) Except as provided in section four of this article and this section, an individual may assert a medical purpose for using cannabis as a defense to any prosecution of an offense involving cannabis intended for the patient's medical use, and this defense shall be presumed valid and the prosecution shall be dismissed where the evidence shows that:

(1)(A) A practitioner states that, in the practitioner's professional opinion, after having completed a full assessment of the individual's medical history and current medical condition made in the course of a bona fide practitioner-patient relationship, the patient is likely to receive therapeutic or palliative benefit from cannabis;

(B) To treat or alleviate the individual's serious or debilitating medical condition or symptoms associated with the individual's serious or debilitating medical condition; or

(C) To treat any other illness for which cannabis provides relief that, in the practitioner's professional opinion the potential benefits of the medical use of cannabis would likely outweigh the health risks for the qualifying patient and would likely be superior to treatment without the medical use of cannabis; and

(2) The individual and the individual's designated caregiver, if any, were collectively in possession of a quantity of cannabis that was not more than was reasonably necessary to ensure the uninterrupted availability of cannabis for the purpose of treating or alleviating the individual's serious or debilitating medical condition or symptoms associated with the individual's serious or debilitating medical condition or other illness for which cannabis was providing relief; and
(3) The individual was engaged in the acquisition, possession, cultivation, manufacture, use or transportation of cannabis, paraphernalia, or both cannabis and paraphernalia, relating to the administration of cannabis to treat or alleviate the individual’s serious or debilitating medical condition or symptoms associated with the individual's serious or debilitating medical condition or other illness for which cannabis was providing relief; and

(4) Any cultivation of cannabis occurred in an enclosed, locked area that only the person asserting the defense could access.

If the department determines, after reviewing the report issued pursuant to section twenty-two of this article, that additional cannabis distribution centers are needed to meet the needs of registered qualifying patients throughout the state, the department shall issue registration certificates to the corresponding number of applicants who score the highest.

(e) (1) At any time after two years after the effective date of this article that the number of outstanding and valid registered cannabis distribution center certificates is lower than the number of registration certificates the department is required to issue pursuant to subsections (c) and (d)

(g) Before cannabis may be dispensed to a designated caregiver or a registered qualifying patient, a registered cannabis distribution center agent must make a diligent effort to verify each

(k) A registered cannabis distribution center may not share office space with nor refer patients to a practitioner.

(l) A practitioner may not refer patients to a registered cannabis distribution center or registered designated caregiver, advertise in a registered cannabis distribution center or, if the practitioner issues written certifications, hold any financial interest in a registered cannabis distribution center.

(5) Any department hard drives or other data-recording media that are no longer in use and that contain cardholder information must be destroyed.

(6) Data subject to this section may not be combined or linked in any manner with any other list or database and it may not be used for any purpose not provided in this article.

(b) Nothing in this section precludes:

§16-8A-20. Registry identification and registration certificate verification.

(a) The department shall maintain a confidential list of the persons to whom the department has issued registry identification cards and their addresses, phone numbers and registry identification numbers. This confidential list may not be combined or linked in any manner with any other list or database, nor may it be used for any purpose not provided in this article.

(b) Within one hundred twenty days of the effective date of this article, the department shall establish a verification system. The verification system must allow law-enforcement personnel, cannabis distribution center agents, and safety compliance facility agents to enter a registry identification number to determine whether or not the number corresponds with a current, valid registry identification card. The system shall only disclose whether the identification card is valid; whether the cardholder is a registered qualifying patient or a registered designated caregiver; whether the cardholder is permitted to cultivate under this act; and the registry identification number of the registered cannabis distribution center designated to serve the registered qualifying patient who holds the card or the registry identification number of the patient who is assisted by the registered designated caregiver who holds the card.
